PRESS CONFERENCE: December 13, 2011 (Tues)

GLOBAL CONFERENCE FOR A NUCLEAR POWER FREE WORLD 2012 YOKOHAMA

On January 14-15 (Sat-Sun), the Global Conference for a Nuclear Power Free World will be held at Pacifico Yokohama.

This two-day conference is being organized by a coalition of 6 Japan-based organisations (Citizens' Nuclear Information Center, FoE Japan, Green Action, Greenpeace Japan, Institute for Sustainable Energy Policies, and Peace Boat), and has been endorsed by many groups around the world including the Nobel Women's Initiative.

Local and international experts as well as ordinary citizens will gather to develop actions to realize a world not dependent upon nuclear power. 10,000 participants, including over 100 from outside Japan, will join the dozens of symposiums, workshops, exhibitions and screenings over two days.

A Press Conference will be held as follows to announce programme details and more:
